

CHRISTIAN RELIGIOUS EDUCATION (CRE)

PAPER B 022, 2018
MARKING SCHEME

SECTION A (50 MARKS)

- 1 (a) God's promises to Abraham (8 Marks)
- Give him many descendents
 - Bless him
 - Make his name great
 - Bless those who bless him and curse those who curse him
 - All will be blessed through Abraham
 - Protect him
 - Give him land in Canaan
 - Give him a son of his own
 - His descendants would be strangers in a foreign land for 400 years but God would punish the nation that they would serve slaves and afterwards they would come out with great possessions.
 - Abraham would die in peace at a good old age
 - God would make some of his descendants kings
 - His descendants would have an everlasting covenant with God
- (b) Relevance of faith in Christian life today (5 Marks)
- Faith enables Christians to obey God, keep God's laws and be acceptable in the sight of God just like Abraham
 - It strengthens Christians in their relationships with God
 - It helps Christians to understand God better
 - It helps Christians to overcome temptations with confidence
 - It enables Christians to believe in God's promises
 - Faith brings blessing from God
 - It enables Christians make right choices
 - It enables Christians to work for peaceful relationship with other people
 - It enables Christians to share their possessions with the needy
2. (a) Bible referred to as a library (8 Marks)
- It was written by different authors over a long period of time.
 - It contains different books under one cover
 - It is a collection of many books
 - It covers a wide range of subjects.
 - The books were written in different styles for different purposes, audience.

- (b) The usefulness of the Bible (5 Marks)
- It is essential for spiritual growth.
 - It guides our relationship with others
 - It is used for worship
 - It is a source of knowledge
 - It directs us on making right decisions or choices
 - It is used for taking oath in offices and in the courts
 - It reveals God's Character
 - It gives hope of eternal life
 - It encourages us in moments of disappointments
 - It challenges our ways of life

- Q3 (a) Jesus' temptation in the desert (6Marks)
- After the 40 days in the wilderness, the devil asked Jesus to change stones to bread.
 - Jesus said that man does not live on bread alone; but on every word that comes from God.
 - The devil conditioned Jesus to worship Him in order to be given the earthly kingdom.
 - Jesus said, worship the Lord your God and serve Him only.
 - He was asked to throw Himself from the highest point of Jerusalem's Temple without breaking His bones
 - Jesus answered the devil saying: You shall not put the Lord you God to the Test.
- (b) Reasons for the rejection of Jesus (6 Marks)
- After reading the scroll from the book of prophet Isaiah and concluded that the prophecy has been fulfilled in Him the promised Messiah, this angered the Jews.
 - They did not believe that Jesus was the expected Messiah as they expected the political and military Messiah.
 - They knew Him as the Son of Joseph and Mary, the ordinary poor people.
 - They knew the family background as humble people and uneducated, and His father Joseph was just a Carpenter.
 - They could not believe Him because he was the friend of sinners
 - Jesus was unmarried; therefore He should not command the royalty of the public.
- Q 4 (a) The importance of the Temple in the Jewish Community. (6 Marks)
- The Temple was as the main place of worship
 - It is considered as God's dwelling place
 - It is a Commercial place
 - It is a place where animals can be bought for sacrifice.
 - It is where the Ark of the covenant is kept.
 - It is considered as a residence for priests, prophets and religious leaders
 - It was used as a social meeting place to discuss religious matters
 - It was the place where the first born males were dedicated to God.
 - It was used as a Law court.

- A place for celebrating religious festivals.
- The Temple acted as an academic place for training religious leaders and teachers of the Law.
- A place where all purifications of rituals were performed

(b) Simeon and Anna revealed the following about the life of Jesus. (6 Marks)

- He would bring universal peace and salvation.
- Jesus has been chosen by God for the destruction and salvation of many in Israel
- He was a sign from God that many people would speak against Him.
- He would meet great opposition which would bring suffering to Him and His mother
- Jesus was predicted to be the messiah
- He would deliver chosen people from oppression
- He would be rejected by His own people
- His suffering would bring sorrow to His mother

Q 5 (a) Preparations for the last Supper. (6 Marks)

- Jesus' apostles asked where He wanted them to prepare for the Passover feast
- Two of them were sent to the city.
- They were told that they would see a man carrying a jar of water.
- They were to follow that man into the house he would enter
- They followed Jesus instructions.
- When they entered the house they asked the owner to show the room where Jesus and His disciples would celebrate the feast of the Passover.
- They prepared the Passover meal.
- In the evening Jesus came with His disciples to celebrate the Passover meal.

SECTION B (50 MARKS)

Answer four (4) questions from this section. Quests ONE and TWO are compulsory.

Q 1 (a) The causes of unhappiness (8 Marks)

- Poverty, not having the basic needs.
- Lack of proper education
- Death of the loved ones
- Unemployment opportunity
- Civil wars
- National conflict
- Diseases e.g. HIV/AIDS, Hepatitis, TB etc.
- Nepotism
- Tribalism
- Being isolated by friends
- Instability in the families
- Corruption, bribery

- Injustices
- Commercialized justice
- Capital punishment
- Mob justice,
- Delayed justice

- (b) Jesus, the sources of happiness to His disciples. (5 Marks)
- He showed God's love to all by offering His life for man's salvation
 - By performing miracles, e.g. healing the sick, lame, the blind and lepers
 - He gave dignity to children as subjects to the Kingdom
 - He showed appreciation and recognition of women in establishing God's Kingdom
 - He brought peace to the tax collectors, prostitutes and the lonely
 - He showed love and forgiveness to the enemies
 - He was a man of team work, working together with His disciples.
 - He was a good shepherd, because he knows people's needs and looks after them.
 - He was a universal man because He came for the whole world.
 - He was a sources of happiness by His death and resurrection
 - He was a complete man, because he gave Himself totally for the services both spiritually and physically.

Q 2 (a) The term 'family' and the two types. (5 Marks)

- A family is the basic unit of society where its members expect to be loved and accepted in a home.
- Two types of family:
 - i) The nuclear family:
This consists of the father, mother and children only. This type of family is very rare to find in Africa. It is common in Europe and America
 - ii) The extended family:
This consists of the nuclear family and other relatives such as the aunts, uncles and the grand – parents. This type of family is mostly common in Africa.

b) The functions of the family (8 Marks)

- It provides the safest place for children to live in
- It trains children on their domestic works
- It helps children to learn the culture of their society.
- It provides emotional support to individual family members
- It helps to develop a religious relationship between God and members of the family.
- It helps children to respect and be loyal to the elders of the family
- In the family, parents are expected to live good examples so that the children learn from them.

- It provides protection to its members
- It helps to unite all members to have common stand in happy and unhappy moments
- It provides financial support for the family members
- It preserves wealth that is jointly owned by relatives
- It supports formal education of individual family members

Q 3 (a) Practices leading to the spreading of STD's in South Sudan (6 Marks)

- Unprotected sexual contacts with infected person
- Blood transfusion from infected persons
- Sharing HIV contaminated sharp instruments
- Mother to Child. Infected mother can pass to the unborn child in case of any damage to the placenta
- Through organ transplant from uninfected person
- Prolonged breastfeeding from infected mother
- At birth, where the umbilical cord is not cut with care
- Serious kissing, while the victims have rashes on the their lips

(b) Ways to prevent STDs in South Sudan

- Consistent and correct use of condom
- Abstain from sex and be faithful to your partner
- Test before sex
- Screening blood before transfusion
- HIV mothers to be attended at the hospital when pregnant
- HIV mothers should avoid heavy work when pregnant
- Open wounds be dressed on spot to avoid coming into contact with another incase many are involved in the accident
- Resort to masturbation
- Avoid risky behaviors like moving in isolation at night
- Circumcision for men also reduces the chance of contracting STDs

Q 4 (a) How people in modern times understand success. (6 Marks)

- Closeness to God: Whenever people are spiritually drawn closer to God they are said to have achieved success.
- Good marriage: When partners are able to live harmoniously together with respect and love
- Child bearing: When their marriage is gifted with children.
- Loyal children: When the children are morally upright, obedient and respectful to their parents.
- Education: When the parents are able to educate their children which enable them attain brighter successful future
- Employment: Success is determined by having good job and fat salary.

- Good governances: A good democratic leadership in the Country is considered a success.
- Economic development: When the country has an increased quantity and quality of social economic services rendered to people.
- Material wealth: Success is attributed to the acquisition of riches got through the right channel e.g. land, cars, buildings.

(b) Obstacles to success (6 Marks)

- Family neglect:- Most parents have got fulltime jobs, hence this deprives them from the parental love, care and protection they give to their families.
- Marital unfaithfulness: This is the abuse of marriage vows by the married partners themselves and this leads to marriage instabilities.
- Child abuse: This hinders the children the chance to have normal growth both mentally and socially as successful member of society.
- Abused women's rights: When women are denied the opportunity to explore fully their potentials in shaping their success.
- Abortion: When the young girls, who deliberately terminated their unwanted pregnancies, could end up permanently barren, and live with the lasting condemnation for killing life.
- Rape: Lustful men who forcefully have sex with women or girls, do abuse their right of consent and therefore rob them of the confidence they would need to pursue a successful life, leaving them with psychological trauma and shame or having acquired the HIV/AIDS

Q5 (a) Definition of the three types of marriage. (6 Marks)

1. Religious marriage: Is a kind of marriage blessed by priest in the church and witnessed by the congregation. This kind of marriage is permanent and it is monogamous
2. Civil marriages: Is a kind of marriage that is done before the government authority. This kind of marriage can be temporary. In any case of divorce there must be concrete reasons
3. Customary marriage: Is a traditionally marriage that is done before the elders and is traditionally blessed

(b) Why is polygamy preferred in African traditional society? (6 Marks)

- Prestige: - having more wives would give a high social status.
- Number of children: Having more children is considered as sources of wealth and security.
- Expansion of clan: Aiming at expanding of family's clan
- Bonds of kinship: A man would get attached to more in-law relationships with different families.
- Rebirth of death: The death of relatives are said to be reborn in the newly born child.
- Economic means: A man can marry as many wives as he wants so long as there are means

- Marriage opportunity: This gives a chance for all the mature girls in the community unmarried; otherwise, to remain unmarried in a village was condemned and caused an embarrassment to the parents.

The end!